

The Science of Interviewing

Learn structured, productive interviewing

Course Type and Length

Workshop 90 minutes

Who Should Take it

- Anyone who conducts interviews as part of their employment
- Corporate security professionals
- Business managers and owners
- H.R. and Legal dept. staff

Advantages of Workshop Training

- Can be tailored toward a specific company
- Users are usually more motivated
- Provides audience participation
- Can be more inspirational

Price: Call us for pricing

Course Overview:

The purpose of interviewing is to gather information. It is a process of asking and answering questions. There are many dynamics that can come into play in the process.

It is so important that the interviewer has the knowledge and skills to help the process, to ensure at the end the interview was productive with the desired results.

What you will learn....

- Qualities of a good interviewer
- How to plan for an interview
- Determine who and role of interviewers
- The phases of interviewing
- Interviewing guidelines
- Question techniques
- Tips to determine truthful answers
- Pros and cons to telephone interviewing
- To record or not to record
- How to document your interview

“Investigative interviewing involves an objective search for the truth.”

Our workshops have been developed using Dave's vast expertise and knowledge developed over a span of 28 years of service with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and 20 years as an investigator and security consultant.

In our workshops, we provide practical insight and solutions to corporate and personal security concerns. Check out our website at www.daverodwell.com

Contact us for Pricing and availability dates