Course Overview:

Robbery is a concern for every business and one of the most feared crimes, due to high potential for violence and death. Every employee should have the knowledge to get through an armed robbery situation.

This course will teach your staff, how to lessen the physical and psychological risk to themselves as well as customers.

This training will minimize liability in the event of an injury or death to an employee or customer in a robbery incident.

Cash handlers need this training to be compliant with “Working Alone” legislation.

What you will learn:

- Possibility of a robbery occurring
- Importance of prevention
- Six steps to minimize a robbery
- What to do during a robbery
- Handling the aftermath of robbery

“Bank robberies are declining as criminals now seek softer targets. Are you a soft target?”
