Course Overview:

Shoplifting can have a major negative impact to retail business. It is not just about the items that are stolen, but also about the safety of staff members and the general public. It is about preventing lawsuits from false arrests and injuries when making an arrest.

This course is designed to educate those individuals that are responsible for a loss prevention program within their businesses. Businesses will increase their profit by preventing the shrinkages from shoplifting.

What you will learn....

- How to establish policy on shoplifting
- Why thieves target your business to shoplift in and what items they love to steal
- How to make shoplifters turn and leave your business by creating a "culture control"
- Store design and layout to deter shoplifting
- Pros and cons on criminal court action
- How to engage your staff to be proactive in shoplifting prevention

Participants should also take the "Employee's Shoplifting Course" to know what their staff are learning.

"According to Ipsos Reid, independent retailers lose about $1000 per month from shoplifting"
